CAUTION

On March 25, 2015, the PNC Bank located at 812 South Fifth Avenue, Denton, Maryland 21629, was allegedly robbed by an unidentified subject. The subject entered the bank and proceeded to the customer work station where he wrote a demand note on a deposit slip. The subject then got in line and waited for the next available teller. When he approached the teller, the subject slid the note, which threatened a gun, to the teller. The teller complied with the demands. The subject then exited the bank and fled the area on foot.
